November 22, 2017 Meeting Topics

- Meeting: Lance Griffin, Treasurer, called the meeting to order in Tim Streaker's absence.
- Guests: Welcome to Bob Smith.
- Future Program: Lance Griffin noted that Bill Greene of the Prince Georges Co. Police crime lab has offered to host a meeting focused on their investigations. The FBI has also offered a similar club program. Stay tuned for the 2018 schedule.
- Awards / Potluck – December Meeting: The December 27th meeting will be the annual Potluck / Social / Awards Dinner. Awards for the Hunter-of-the-Year and Find-of-the-Year will be determined and awarded a 1/10th oz. gold coin. Bring your finds for the Prize Board since the November Prize Board was deferred to December and will count for points to determine the Hunter-of-the-Year.
- Dues 2018: Paul Sweeney stated 2018 dues will be collected in January.
- Club Apparel: Tim Streaker will report on the progress at the December meeting.
- Open Hunt: Lance Griffin started a discussion regarding prize ideas for next year's Open Hunt. A treasure chest with multiple keys and a special raffle were discussed.
- Program: In place of a formal program, Joe Preast related his secrets for locating over 100 rings a year. Joe uses a jet ski, dry suit and a keen knowledge of the rules related to beach and park regulations.

Tips and Comments

Randy Jordan related his success with knocking on a door and asking for permission.

Anthony Bogdan discussed his experience with paid hunts in Virginia.
